

Put a little spring in your step with

NACE

NACE

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF
CATERING EXECUTIVES

Despite it all... everything is growing again.

And your career, your business should be no exception.

You advise your clients to choose wisely when it comes to planning events and you help them make smart spending decisions for maximum value. Why shouldn't you follow your own advice?

A membership in the National Association of Catering Executives provides you with an instant network of more than 4,000 professional friends and colleagues, who are leaders in the industry, experts at their craft and more than willing to help. Talk about a social network! NACE practically invented the concept. In addition, NACE gives you regional and national educational workshops and webinars, the Certified Professional Catering Executive (CPCE) certification, chapter programs and networking, sponsorship opportunities and business partner advantages. And that's just the start of it.

During March 22 through May 21 you can join NACE at a discounted rate of $295. In addition, we are throwing in a little something extra, a $25 discount to the NACE store, where you can pick up CDs from past events and merchandise that lets everyone know you are a member of the best professional association for catering professionals and event designers.

Here's what NACE brings to the table:

- The Experience!TM annual conference
- Local chapter networking and education programming
- NACE career center just for industry professionals
- The Certified Professional Catering Executive (CPCE) designation
- Access to NACE national business partners
- National and local sponsorship opportunities
- Industry-wide awards recognition program
- NACE's membership discount program, the "NACE Advantage"
- And much more

So join NACE today.

The Fine Print

1. Offer valid for new members. Renewals are only accepted as part of this offer if membership has lapsed for more than one year.
2. Offer not valid with other NACE discounts or promotions. Discount applies only to professional members, young professionals are excluded.
3. The offer will not be available to campaign participants prior to March 22, 2010
4. If no local chapter is in your area, your membership will be designated as "At-Large".
